

Champagne and Sparkling Wine

Corney and Barrow Sparkling Blanc de Blancs, Savoie

Apples, blossom and brioche on the nose with a crisp, citrusy, clean and refreshing palate. Really very good.

£24.00

Prosecco, Le Colture, Treviso, Italy

Pale straw in colour with delicate, heavenly aromas of orchard fruit, citrus, almonds and white flowers. Soft mousse and beautiful complexity of flavour on the palate.

125ml glass £5.20 bottle £26.00

Wiston Estate, Rose Brut, West Sussex 2011

Delicate and fine, this is a refreshing, inviting sparkling wine with the profile of raspberries and cream.

£50.00

Pol Roger NV Champagne, France

The 'house favourite' Grande-Marque Champagne, 'Pol' is a beautifully refined champagne displaying gorgeous floral and brioche aromas with a beautiful mouth-filling palate—worth every penny!

White wines by the bottle

- Viognier, Puertas Antiguas, Central Valley, Chile £19
Layers of stone fruits and spice drive this lush, fruity and refreshing example of this aromatic grape. Hugely enjoyable and food friendly. Perfect with shellfish.
- Ana Sauvignon Blanc, Eradus, Marlborough, New Zealand £26
Typical Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, with plenty of upfront grass and a cocktail of spring green vegetable and gooseberries. Try it with a robust white fish.
- Picpoul de Pinet, Morin-Langaran, Languedoc, France £22
Picpoul or Piquepoul is a fascinating little grape variety. Bright, scintillatingly dry & fruity.
- Pinot Grigio, La Luna, Cecilia Beretta, Veneto, Italy £21
Text book Pinot Grigio, light and elegant with a nice depth of orchard fruit character on a dry, crisp finish.
- Sauvignon Blanc, Rosario, Central Valley, Chile £20
Fresh and elegant with tropical fruit and herbaceous notes on a juicy, clean palate.
- Sancerre, Domaine du Nozay, Loire £29
This vineyard boasts a high proportion of prized terres blanches, the chalky-clay soils are rich in marine fossils which link to the distinctive flavours and textures of this Sancerre.
- Pinot Gris, Eradus, Marlborough, New Zealand £28
A definite house favourite, this is a food-friendly Pinot Gris. Rich and weighty,

From one of the leading producers of top quality white burgundy. Les Setilles is an iconic Burgundy, sourcing fruit from their sites in Puligny and Meursault.

Red Wines by the bottle

Cabernet Sauvignon, Rosario, Central Valley, Chile £20

A more classical style of Cab Sauv but with all the juicy and fruit forward attitude of Chilean wine. Medium bodied and toned with delicate flashes of mint and dusty herbs.

Merlot, Cecilia Beretta, Italy £20

A fragrant, fruit driven merlot. No oak just bags of sweet, succulent red fruits. Light to medium bodied. Juicy, fresh and clean.

Malbec, Chamuyo, Mendoza, Argentina £21

A lovely, lush and rounded Malbec that with its simple yet chunky, pretty much cries out for beef!

Cotes-du-Rhone Villages, Les Becs Fins, Rhone, France £26

Deep plum-cherry, with a bright rim, this offers a gorgeous nose of plum, red and black fruit, pepper and spice. The palate takes up the reins, offering lovely berried character, pure, with a peppery backdrop - really good and persistent on the finish.

Soraie 'Baby Amarone', Veneto, Italy £27

Produced using the classic Venetian process of appassimento. Red fruits, plums, coffee and spice with a dusting of cocoa and black pepper flows effortlessly to crunchy, ripe fruit on a fresh, medium-bodied palate and length of silky fruit purity.

La Tunella, Pinot Nero Collio orientali de Friuli, Italy £24

This delicious pinot noir has fresh cherry and red fruits to the fore with a crisp, well-structured backbone light enough for white meat or maybe duck.

Mad Dog Shiraz, Barossa, Australia £38

The Barossa Valley is well known for its stunning Shiraz. Made in tiny quantities each year from very old vines, Mad Dog Shiraz is a prime example of its type, with its spicy plump fruit, velvety chocolate texture, and refreshing minerality.

Rioja Crianza, Vina Belezos, Bodegas Zugoer, Rioja, Spain £25

Stunning Crianza from one of the new stars of the region. Definitely in the traditional style of Rioja but with a delicious fragrant and fresh angle.

St. Emilion, Chateau Barrail du Blanc, Bordeaux £34

This is an elegant wine, ruby in colour, plush red fruits on the nose with a sweet, seductively cheny palate and a fresh, silky length. Choose with beef, venison, or cheese.

Red wine by the bottle

Coudoulet de Beaucastel, Perrin

£45

The 'Coudoulet' vineyard is situated next to and is owned by the Chateauneuf du pape estate of Ch. De Beaucastel. It's a majestic wine with bags of character and finesse.

Malbec, Achaval – Ferrer

£38

One of the highest ranking Malbecs in Argentina. This wine is intense, deeply coloured and wonderfully complex with trademark velvety tannins.

A very polished beef wine.

Proprieter's blend, Ernie Els

£48

Dominated by some outstanding cabernet fruit, lots of deeply flavoured black fruit and flashes of marzipan and spice. Firm tannins with a very approachable drinkability on a blueberry/mocha infused length.

"Wine is like golf - in both endeavours nature has the last ruling." – Ernie Els
